DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent No. 3,971,387 to Mantell.

Mantell discloses a therapeutic mask (1) that is configured for placement over a person's face with openings (9) for the eyes, mouth, and nose (see Figure 2). Straps (13) are included for attachment to the wearer's head and the mask is formed of flexible plastic, or resilient, material (column 1, lines 53-55). The mask includes multiple pressure points (24) mounted to the undersurface of the mask in locations where they are capable of engaging acupressure points of the face. The pressure points are considered to meet the requirement of "non-compressible" because they are constructed of metal (column 2, lines 25-27).

Regarding the term "passive", any of the pressure points (24) on the mask are in a passive state while electrical energy is not being applied. Since the mask is capable of being placed on a user's face while in the passive state and the pressure points would function to apply pressure to the face in this state, the mask disclosed by Mantell meets this limitation.

Regarding claim 5, Mantell meets the requirement that the mask have a plurality of groups of apertures overlying the acupressure areas of the face because the mask includes apertures into which the stems (25) of the pressure points (24) are inserted. Regarding claim 10, the mask is considered to have a forehead cluster and cheekbone clusters of pressure points. Figure 8 illustrates that the pressure points (24) have mounting portions (25) and hemispherical surfaces for contact with the wearer's face. The pressure points are considered to be "removably attachable to the mask" due to their separate construction and mounting means.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
